

CANT GET TO THE LIBRARY? WE'LL COME TO YOU.

You may qualify for Books-By-Mail — it's free!

The Library's Special-
Outgoing Services Program
(SOS) serves seniors and disabled residents who are unable to come to The Library.

Participants in the Books-By-Mail program can receive free:

- books (including large print)
- magazines
- CDs and DVDs

These materials can also be mailed back to the library at no cost.

Visually impaired patrons can obtain talking books with special tape players as well as descriptive videos.
To learn more about qualifying for SOS services, call (330) 792-3869.

(330) 744-8636

www.libraryvisit.org • www.Library2011.org www.TeenXTremeOnline.org • www.LibraryKidsville.org

Town Crier 7/29/04

The Public Library

The Library System Built for You