

GETTING INTO THE HOLIDAY MOOD
Residents Ethel Greene and Virginia Hahn get a helping hand with their gingerbread men from Sherri Bronker of the John McIntire Library. Sherri visits the retirement community seasonally to offer FREE craft classes to the Inn's residents.

Taste of Reading

June 6, 2003 at 10:30 AM
The Inn at North Hills
1575 Bowers Lane,
Zanesville

Come and join us at The Inn at North Hills for a lively discussion about Guns and Roses: an Irish Eyes Travel Mystery set in Colonial Williamsburg by Taffy Cannon.

Ex-cop Roxanne Prescott has switched careers, and now leads educational tours for her aunt's travel agency. But as her group, "The Guns and Roses" tour, moves from Mount Vernon to Monticello, a practical joker begins a series of pranks. Events take a sinister turn, and Roxanne must figure out which of her group is a killer in hiding.

Pick up your copy of the book in the Reference Department at The John McIntire Public Library. Light refreshments will be served. For more information please call Blair Tom at 453-0391 ext. 31.

We Love Our Library

Residents, Charlotte Roebuck, Francis Johnson and Virginia Hahn are proud of their handywork.

February is Library Lovers' Month. This is a month-long celebration of school, public and private libraries, here in Muskingum County. They provide our residence with large print books, books-on-tape and videos, which they change out every six weeks.

This allows our residents to enjoy a favorite pastime without ever leaving their home!

Cherie Bronkar spends time with our residents making crafts and providing plenty of fun, with her trivia questions. They also enjoy looking at pictures of her cute baby.

"Taste of reading" is also a favorite, at North Hills. This senior reading group, for people 60 or better, meets at North Hills for lively book discussions, a time of fellowship and light refreshments, prepared by our chef. Join us on February 6th at 10:30, for our next group discussion, about Quilter's Apprentice by Jennifer Chiaverni. Hope to see you there!

Cherie Bronkar, from the library, spreads cheer throughout The Inn everytime she visits.

